Invite Steve Pestrock into your experience and allow him to capture those moments you want to remember.

"Our expertise includes Traditional, Candid, and Photojournalistic styles."

There is a tremendous joy, and great effort, involved in creation of a wedding. Observing the humor, patience, sensuality, and love that has brought the couple to this day, I photograph weddings with the eye of a photojournalist, the creative mind of a storyteller, and the heart of a true romantic.
